

Looking them Over

JACK KELLY

Raring To Go

THIS starting whiff for the Edmonton Flyers and the Alberta Senior Hockey sounds like a week from Saturday and Coach Eddie O'Keefe has his pack of rammers just about ready to turn loose.

For once, the senior loop will open with no team able to claim that it has not had a chance to get into condition. Every one of the four teams have been on ice now for nearly a month and some of them have a number of exhibition games already under their belts.

This situation should give the fans hockey with a sting in it right from the break-away. In other words the duels with no artificial ice, Drumheller, Oke and Coleman, were always behind the others in the matter of condition for the first two or three weeks of the schedule. The result was flabby competition until around New Year's day when the boys generally started to work themselves into shape and get their timing down right.

There is still every reason to consider the coming season one of the most promising that senior hockey has had in these parts for many long and years.

Fortunately some of the four clubs in the Alberta loop have strained their financial assets by over-imporing. All teams have strengthened up a bit, but from what I hear they have been able to do this without giving mortgages on their post offices.

Last season's senior hockey was not brilliant, but, with the exception of three or four games here, it was always fast, hard and interesting. From the present trend it looks as if fans can look forward this winter to hockey that is even a trifle better. That should be good enough to satisfy any reasonable person.

Personally I think the Allan cup has become a menace to senior hockey. The rush to get into the playoffs in order to get a final fight, City after city has decided to go after this trophy in order that its fans might swag in the national spotlight—and after city has plunged its hockey into financial ruin by grasping for the silver trophy.

My own plan is that the major objective to be kept in mind is that of keeping hockey on such a sound financial basis that it remains stable and permanent with the right type of men behind it. So far the Edmonton Hockey Club seems to be doing an excellent job of this.

It's nice to have a domination championship, but the present price of this honor is way too high.

Sniping Around At Random

THE EDMONTON BULLETIN got around double Nazi submarine and home. Last night a letter arrived from that famous spot—Somewhere in England. It was from Joe Gill of Ponoka who is now on active service with the Royal Canadian Medical Corps. He says he was browsing around a small English city one late September afternoon and wondering how the war was going back home, he being one of Ponoka's notable enthusiasts. Just then he came across a copy of the Edmonton Bulletin and there on the sports page he found the answers to most of the questions he had wanted answered.

You can add big game hunters to comparatively small list of people who are cheering about the snow that is falling fairly fast this is being written. This steady light fall is perfect for tracking. Even a greenhorn can start at a glance whether or not a track is fresh.

If you like to watch track runs of luck, keep your eyes on the National Hockey League games between the Detroit Red Wings and the Chicago Black Hawks this season. Last season's Flyers couldn't win a single game from Chicago. The best they could do was get two ties out of their eight engagements.

BIG TEN TITLE STAKE SATURDAY AT MINNESOTA

By STEVE SNIDER

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—(BUP)—The game of the year is near at hand, pitting undefeated Minnesota against undefeated Michigan on Saturday and to the winner almost certainly will go the Big Ten football championship.

This taste of the perfect record, scheduled at Minnesota, tops anything in the program from coast to coast. Even in the days when these teams battled for nothing more than the Little Brown Jug they parked their games with blistering rivalry. This week, they're after the Jug, the Big Ten title and national honors as well.

Two missed placements after touchdowns kept Minnesota in the lead in the game. Minnesota's defense, Michigan and Northwestern. Except for the two missed conversions, Minnesota and Northwestern had a standstill in the game. Northwestern's defense, Michigan's offense, kept the game in a stalemate.

Rags To Riches Yarn Is Flop For McLeomore

By HENRY McLEMORE

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—(BUP)—This would have been a much better story if I hadn't run across Lynn Waldorf, Northwestern football coach, while on the way to see Billy Devereaux.

I was all set and going to pull out all the Harlan-Alexander story on Billy. First I was going to describe what a flop he was as a sophomore pitcher, after getting the biggest bludge as a high school pitcher and freshman in the history of football.

You were going to get out and in full detail, how he couldn't do anything right last year. Now his pitchers batted him down, and how he was going to be just an ordinary football.

Then I planned to paint the spirit of a boy who had to give up even against a team as good as Northwestern. And his kicking was instrumental in our winning the Illinois and Washington games. He was a four pointer himself, completing 41 per cent of his passes.

The only thing he had absolutely lost in his running with the ball, he was a big-dogged back, the best Minnesota. Yes, he may have been a flop, but you figure out.

STANDOUT PERFORMER

So far this year Devereaux has been the standout back on the club. He has earned the full 47 points for a gain of 213 yards and an average of 4.2 yards. He has two touchdowns against Syracuse, and the touchdowns that kicked Ohio State.

Then I was told that the big kick, lumbering fellow who coaches Billy. "The kids making a whole of a showing after that last of 1939, all right," he said. "But you know, Billy, what a flop he was as a sophomore pitcher."

"What was that?" Waldorf asked. "I repeated."

"Who and Billy was a flop as a sophomore pitcher?" Waldorf asked. "I repeated."

HUSKIES MEET STANFORD TRIBE FOR BOWL KEY

By ED CONKLIN

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 8.—(BUP)—Washington's Huskies and the Indians of Stanford, the high and low of season's chances, clash this weekend in a red hot contest that probably will decide the west coast championship and force a key to the Rose Bowl.

The two are the only undefeated conference records and on the difference between Washington's power and Stanford's deception will rest the chances of keeping of team's lead.

Only a southward venture a prediction on the crucial meeting, because the two have reached the cross-road from opposite directions and travelling at different speeds.

RISKS FROM ASHES

Guided by a coaching Houdini, Clark Shaughnessy, Stanford has risen from the ashes of its most disastrous season and come flying to the top of the conference. On the other hand, Washington was labelled as the new west's first team and is fighting to justify its choice.

However, since Washington is opener to Minnesota and since the game will be played at Palo Alto, the Indians probably will hold a narrow edge. The key to Stanford's chances at the peak of the new west's first team is the Indians have had against teams poured from Washington's.

Showing heavy ignorance of trend and from Pacific coast teams such as hit the line twice, pass and throw, the Indians have come up with a box of tricks that get them a victory each week. On offensive most people have trouble finding the ball carrier—some of their number usually includes half of the offensive team.

TOUGHEST TO DATE

But Washington, with its seasoned, hard-charging line, has been Stanford's toughest competition to date and unpredictable Jimmy Plakas has had a week's job to point his squad for the other ship game.

With a victory over Stanford, the Huskies still will be under heavy fire before conference play. They must meet USC, UCLA, and Washington State in successive Saturdays and two of the three could prove a stumbling block, throwing the loss of a multiple loss.

However, a victory would put Stanford over the hump, with only Oregon State and California, with whom they contend.

Overlaid with the Stanford-Washington game, the rest of the conference plays a full schedule. USC, after a week's rest, meets California at Los Angeles; Washington State, Oregon State, UCLA, Oregon, and Idaho take Montana at Moscow.

There isn't a silver boy in football. Good looking, smart, modest, and set of his mind, he's not better played this year than last.

PUBLICITY WAS TOUGH

That publicity I got was a little tough. It would have been easier if I had been a little more of a public figure. I tried not to let anyone know I was in the world. Billy said: "After all, a sophomore's a sophomore. You know that, don't you? I don't care if I have to go to the bottom of the world."

I still wish I had flipped that year, though, if I could have gone to the bottom of the world. Billy said: "I could have said it to True Story."

Coach Eddie O'Keefe Names Tentative Club

With the first game still a little more than a week off, Coach Eddie O'Keefe announced Thursday night the tentative roster of the Flyers, Edmonton's entry in the Alberta Senior Hockey League.

While there is still a possibility of a few minor changes being made, the 1940 edition of the Flyers will be at least seven new players in uniform. Nine of last year's team have been retained.

For full Editor O'Keefe named Dave Pow and Gordon Robbins, the latter having looked after the netting job for the team last season. Pow was with Drumheller for two years and prior to that with Lacombe. Both have been showing up well in the workouts this fall.

The Flyers defense looks really good with Walter McIntyre, Gordon Spradlin, Gordon Wall and Alex McSparran. McIntyre, Gordon Spradlin, Gordon Wall and Alex McSparran performed last season and Alex in addition came out on the forward line if necessary.

FORNERS WITH BEAVERS

McIntyre made his name with the North Battleford Beavers when they went through to the Allan Cup final in 1937. Waller will add a lot of strength to the defense, for a happy career of getting out at least a piece of nearly everything that goes past him.

Sherrill from Portage la Prairie, but played with Geraldton last winter and besides being a good coach knows what it's all about. He will go down to the net and should be good for several goals.

Eddie O'Keefe, Joe Brown and Alex Wall will probably be one and a half "Ducks" Skinner and Les Bird on the other.

JOE BROWN WILL PLAY

Of the six, Joe Brown is the only one who has played in the league. Joe went to play with the Superior team and last year was with Harrington.

For utility, Bob Haxby, Henry Kinnegon, Al Nesbome and Joe Dunchak have been named. The last two are former New York Flyers and will certainly fit nicely into the picture.

There isn't a very trying out for players on the team and there may be other changes. The Flyers who was with Oke last year, went out to practice yesterday, having just returned from army camp and two other good prospects are billed for the tryouts.

The first league game is scheduled for the Arma on Saturday, Nov. 16. In the Flyers, meet Turrill Valley.

SOX SIGN UP YOUNG JORGENSEN

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—(AP)—Signing of Orville Jorgensen, veteran reserve catcher of the Chicago White Sox, was announced Thursday by Chicago White Sox.

Jorgensen, 28, a right handed pitcher, developed a new arm last season and was named to the Pacific Coast league. He has been with Philadelphia, Philadelphia and two International League clubs, Baltimore and Montreal.

While Sox officials and fans have heard of him, Jorgensen has been in the White Sox for a long time and that he would report at spring training.

While the Sox also announced purchase of Thomas H. Tucker, young centre fielder, from Oklahoma City of the Texas League.

There are 300 parcels with 600 cylinders, multi-line, more than 2,000,000 copies of 1941, overalls that you should use before you make a purchase.

Everyone in London Has Had Experience With Bomb Raids

British United Press Correspondent Tells Of Personal Experiences In Empire Capital

By BRIAN A. TORIN

LONDON, Nov. 8.—(BUP)—You don't have to stay long in the London of today to gather your own crop of "personal experience" stories. There is hardly a resident of the city who has not had an intimate acquaintance with the bombing raids: from the suburbanite who picks up anti-aircraft shell fragments off his lawn every morning to the unfortunate resident who one evening was bombed out of his own house and his neighbor's and finally woke up in hospital, dazed but uninjured after the concrete roof of his third refuge, an air raid shelter, was blown off.

FREE FRENCH FORCES TAKE AFRICAN POST

By HOMER JENKS

LONDON, Nov. 8.—(BUP)—Gen. Charles De Gaulle's "Free French" forces claimed today to have captured the fortified garrison of Lambarie in the South Sudan section of French equatorial Africa. A communiqué said the occupation was achieved after a series of difficult operations and after a siege. The garrison is approximately 50 miles southeast of Libreville on Lake Ogoé.

De Gaulle's report claimed that the garrison resisted "despite the wishes of the population to surrender." Only a few fugitives escaped into the bush he said.

The senior city of Libreville and Port Gentile are still under the control of forces sent there by the Vichy government.

Montreal Liberal Named To Senate By Premier King

OTTAWA, Nov. 8.—(CPI)—Prime Minister Mackenzie King today announced the appointment to the Senate of Léon Mercier, G.D., of Montreal, for the division of St. Lawrence.

His appointment raises the number of Liberal seats in the Senate Chamber to 47. Conservative seats number 47 and the number of independents is reduced to two.

Returning by train from a London suburb the next night, there was a bang and a blinding flash of orange light as the train alowed down for a way station. I could have sworn the bomb went off between my feet. Actually it was a small one which exploded in the roadway next to the railway lines.

Waters in white aprons had rushed from a restaurant door below and were smothering a "flaming oil" with sand. Another bomb burst and scattered several doors above on the roof of a hotel. It was quickly extinguished by the men on guard.

There are of course thousands of the great city who have not yet had a bomb near them but there are also thousands who owe their lives to miraculous escape. Men, women and children who crawl out of the crumbling brick and plaster that was their home and carry on with their jobs.

They are not just victims. They are here to see it through. And they will see it through with courage that defies all the morale-breaking efforts of the night raiders.

FISHERMEN ARE LOST IN WRECK OF SMALL SHIP

PORT ALBERT, B.C., Nov. 8.—(CPI)—One man was drowned Thursday and another was missing after the seine boat Liberty struck a reef at the mouth of the Fraser, 25 miles northwest of Port Alberni. Heroic efforts of the crew of another seine boat saved two other members of the Liberty's crew, while three others managed to swim ashore.

G. Sullivan of Vancouver was drowned when a heavy gale smashed the (Liberty) fishing craft against the reef. A man named Carr was missing and believed drowned. Searchers had found no trace of him late last night.

Thailand Warns French Against More Violations

BANGKOK, Thailand (Siam), Nov. 8.—(CPI)—Siamese military quarters said today that French air force violations of Siamese territory "would mean trouble" after an authorized statement had charged the French with 13 violations of the Thai frontier since April.

The statement said that the French planes from Indo-China had violated the Thai frontier "despite repeated protests" and it warned that if violations continued "both parties will come to grief."

Purvis Expects Place More War Orders In States

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—(BUP)—Mr. Purvis of Montreal, head of the British purchasing commission, said after a conference with President Roosevelt today that he was flying back to Britain shortly and definitely would return with more orders for defense materials.

Purvis emerged from the president's office with Treasury Secretary Henry Morgenthau. Purvis gave no indication as to what the additional orders he mentioned might be.

On The Eastern Ramparts

With echoes from the thunder of Europe's war rumbling to the farthest corners of the earth, the Philippine Islands join in America's preparedness program. Above: Philippine members of Battery "F," 8th Coast Artillery, load a 10-inch coast defense gun in practice maneuvers facing Manila Bay, where 42 years ago Admiral Dewey defeated the Spanish fleet.

Windows in three compartments behind me were broken. The hotel was shaken that night by a bomb which glanced off a building across the narrow street and exploded in mid-air.

Score of windows were shattered and the walls were badly pitted. My room was on the opposite side of the building.

Each morning did not happen every night, and are hardly mentioned in this city of determined defenders. There is enough real tragedy where the killed and wounded are concerned. Europeans are spoken of lightly—not at all.

SHEER CHANCE Sheer chance governs the selection of victims as the Nazi planes dove high above the clouds, dropping bombs when the barrage goes too hot for them.

To cope with its Londoners have developed a philosophical acceptance of the law of probability. There is not too much to be done about the danger of a direct hit except hope it will be somewhere else.

If the claim is found justified and exceeds 10 the documents must be approved to the deputy judge advocate general at Canadian military headquarters in London. If the latter approves of payment he will settle for a sum not exceeding 100 (about $200) for damages to property and 100 for personal injury.

If the claim arises out of an aircraft accident, the deputy judge advocate-general must confer with the senior consultant officer at Royal Canadian Air Force headquarters in Great Britain before acting on it.

The order also authorizes demands for reimbursement of the public treasury from the officers and other persons responsible for the injury in certain cases.

Prisoners Of War Will Be Employed On Certain Work

OTTAWA, Nov. 8.—(CPI)—All Canadian members of the joint Canadian-United States defense board will begin this week to consider for a tour of the Pacific Coast and discussions on Pacific defense problems with the American members. Col. O. M. Biegar said Thursday night.

Col. Biegar, chairman of the Canadian section, said the joint board will meet at San Francisco Monday and subsequently visit Seattle, Portland, Victoria and Vancouver.

Col. Biegar, Brig. Kenneth Stuart, Deputy Chief of the Canadian General Staff, Air Commandant, C. C. Cuffe, air member, air staff, Hugh L. Krenzelok, of the Department of External Affairs, and Col. G. P. Vanier, former minister in France, leave New York, together by airplane on Sunday for San Francisco.

The other Canadian member, Capt. L. W. Murray, deputy chief of naval staff, is now in Halifax, but will join United States members of the board in New York the same day and fly to the coast with them. Mayor Fiorella LaGuardia of New York is chairman of the American section.

No Attacks Made On Church States Quebec Minister

TERREBONNE, Que., Nov. 8.—(CPI)—Educational reforms suggested by the provincial Liberal government continued under attack at a Liberal by-election meeting here Thursday night.

Charges of Union Nationalist Leader Maurice Duplessis that an attack on the church was intended were the accusations of a man who makes a public record of his religious beliefs.

Robertson said the broadcaster, for the legislative assembly seat left vacant by the death of Hon. Athanasius David in the Canadian election, will be held Nov. 19.

Educational reforms were being made at the request of the clergy, he added.

B.C. DOES NOT ACCEPT FULLY SIROIS PLANS

Not Suitably Applicable To Province Premier Tells Legislature

VICTORIA, Nov. 8.—(CPI)—Premier T. D. Pattullo told the provincial legislature Thursday that while the British Columbia government proposes to co-operate in the full with the federal government and other provincial authorities regarding the report of the Sirois-Sioux commission, it is not prepared to accept the recommendations of this report in toto as suitably applicable to British Columbia.

The premier's statement was made following announcement of Ottawa Thursday a conference of provincial governments would be held to discuss the commission's recommendations.

"I do not agree with all its conclusions and its various suggestions which these conclusions were arrived at by the commission have been in this already short space of time very considerably altered, and have changed the picture," Mr. Pattullo said.

PLENARY POWERS "Placed in the hands of federal authority plenary powers" even to the extent of those which are now exercised during this war period would in peace time "only lead to disaster and disunity," the premier declared.

"Unless centralization of any kind was so harmful, then there would be no jurisdiction which should be exclusive to the Dominion and the provinces, respectively, and there should be clearly and definitely defined jurisdictional boundaries where joint participation would appear desirable. These also should be clearly defined."

R. L. Macdonald, K.C., leader of the Conservative opposition, asked the government to take members of the legislature into its confidence and advise the Ontario cabinet.

When a claim against the forces is made by a civilian, the officer in charge of the appropriate headquarters is required to conduct an investigation. If he finds the claim justified and settlement is not involved more than 10 (about $200), he may pay it.

If the claim is found justified and exceeds 10 the documents must be approved to the deputy judge advocate general at Canadian military headquarters in London. If the latter approves of payment he will settle for a sum not exceeding 100 (about $200) for damages to property and 100 for personal injury.

THREE HURT IN MISHAPS DUE TO SNOW

Only Slight Injuries Sustained In 21 Accidents In City

Three persons were hurt, although not seriously, as the result of 21 accidents on city streets between noon Thursday and 10:15 a.m. today, according to police reports.

The injured are: Miss Grace Gray, 10229 123 street, who slipped and fell; Mrs. L. M. Dine, 10000 111 street, who slipped and fell; and Frank T. Dalton, 10000 111 street, who slipped and fell.

All three persons sustained minor injuries and were taken to hospital for treatment.

Mrs. Gray, going north, appeared to slide on the slippery snow at the intersection, the impact caused Mrs. Gray's car to swing completely around.

Mr. Dalton, 1002 102 street, was driving south when he slipped and fell on the sidewalk.

Campaign Meetings Are Poorly Attended When Weather Turns Colder

Interest in the municipal election campaign meetings dwindled with the sinking mercury, and only six persons turned out Thursday night to greet mayoralty and aldermanic candidates at the Colder meeting and two at the morning held in the Westmount school. The Westmount meeting was abandoned after half an hour when no further electors turned out.

There was little in the nature of fireworks but Mayor John W. Fry was heckled at a table by a man who claimed that city business was being diverted for taxes. The mayor denied the allegation, and chastised the heckler in his own defence.

Annual Bazaar Attracts Many On Thursday

OLDEN crafts of Russia which have their roots in antiquity and which are being developed by the Russian people, were the main attraction at the annual bazaar of the Russian Women's Club, held on Thursday afternoon at the club house, 1001 10th St. S. W. The bazaar was a success, with many of the Russian people present, and the proceeds will be used for the benefit of the club.

Attracting attention to the bazaar was the display of Russian handicrafts, including embroidery, lace, and other traditional crafts. The bazaar was held in the club house, which was decorated with Russian flags and bunting. The proceeds of the bazaar will be used for the benefit of the club, which is a non-profit organization dedicated to the promotion of Russian culture and the welfare of its members.

Censorship Of Press Is Talk Subject

Comprehensive survey of what censorship of the press, due to the war, means, was given by Mrs. J. H. Brown, president of the Women's Press Club, at their Thursday afternoon session. Mrs. Brown, who is a well-known journalist, discussed the various forms of censorship and the impact it has on the press and the public.

Mrs. Brown's presentation was well-received by the members of the club, who are interested in the role of the press in society. She discussed the various forms of censorship, including government censorship, self-censorship, and censorship by the public. She also discussed the impact of censorship on the press and the public, and the importance of maintaining a free press.

The Women's Press Club is a non-profit organization dedicated to the promotion of the press and the welfare of its members. The club holds regular sessions, during which members discuss various topics related to the press and journalism. The club also organizes various events, including lectures and seminars, to educate the public on the role of the press in society.

The club's sessions are open to all women who are interested in the press and journalism. The club's members are active in the community, and they work to promote the press and the welfare of the public. The club's sessions are a valuable source of information and education for women who are interested in the press and journalism.

Shadow Of War Darkens Social Scene In Washington — Will Be No Diplomatic Reception

WASHINGTON, N. C., Nov. 8.—The social scene in Washington is darkened by the shadow of war. There will be no diplomatic reception on Thursday, Nov. 8, as the government has decided to cancel all social events during the war. The cancellation of the reception is a reflection of the government's commitment to the war effort and its desire to conserve resources for the war.

Your Baby And Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRIDGE

Babies may develop cradle cap because the mother is too cautious about washing the baby's head. Fearful that pressure may be harmful the mother over this area hastily, allowing dirt and oil to collect into an evil-smelling crust. The best way to prevent this crust is to use soap and water generously each day and oil the spot well on alternate days.

Mrs. W. C. F. says her son developed a spot of eczema on the leg at two months of age. His persistent local treatment, it had cleared up by his eighth month, but then appeared behind each ear and on the scalp. A valve keeps the spot behind the ear clear but not the scalp. It persists after a shampoo and then flares over and has a bad odor. He is 18 months old and I am discouraged.

Your Figure, Madame!

By IDA JEAN KAIN

If you are inclined to regard yourself as a bit corpulent—or on the bandwagon side, take the advice of beautiful Renee De Maen and look up your posture! Drive yourself up to you. Full regal height, tip your chin to the sky and step along as though you were somebody—and the people clares, a poor posture can make her look thinner! "Look at me!" Renee exclaims. "I weigh 100 pounds, which is plenty. My bones are stout. And yet I wear in slims. I would look positively serene!"

But she doesn't plump! And

Some of the hardest-impulse champions of beauty agree that Renee De Maen, the dancer, has the most beautiful figure in the world. What she thinks are the most beautiful features in beauty are carried up for you today in Ida Jean Kain's article.

DOVER FACES GERMAN FIRE UNDISMAYED

Although In Front Line Of Battle People Carry On As Usual

By ROSS MURDO

DOVER, Eng., Nov. 5.—(P)—Take the old Roman road to Dover, enter this town that the Nazis have tried to smash in stores and you find it still in carrying on business, easily and impassively, under fire.

They call it Hell's Kitchen. Dover is not a shambles of smoke, darkness and confusion. It is a town that has been bombed for years. But it is a town that has been bombed for years.

Life undisturbed

Buildings here are still their usual strength. The town is still its usual strength. The town is still its usual strength.

Life right on the front

Life right on the front seems almost more casual than in London under air attack. It is difficult to realize that German-held territory is only 30 miles across the channel. There are even stores continue to operate and down along the esplanade sailors stroll with their girls.

Mystery Blaze Sweeps War Department Building

While 500 troops from Ft. Meade, Va., guard the ruins, federal authorities are investigating the mysterious fire which swept three new wings of the War Department building in Washington. Above, flames shoot from the structure at the height of the blaze. Important record files were in offices burned, one of which was Army Air Corps code room.

Today These Greeks Aren't Fooling

When the photographer made this photo of a Greek outpost in the northern hills some time ago, the boys were only playing at war—pecking for signs of a theoretical enemy. Today they're right in the middle of the real thing and giving a good account of themselves against the superior forces of Italy. Latest reports say that a counter-attack by Greek troops halted the Italian invaders back for three miles inside the Albanian border.

Britain's Ex-Civilian Pilots At Air Transport Work

Many civil airmen were sent from serving in the Royal Air Force to operate in the exalted Air Transport Auxiliary. Perhaps the most completely trained fliers in the world, the men of the ATA must know intimately the mechanism of more than 40 different types of aircraft. Top picture shows a group of ATA men checking their routes after receiving their day's instructions. Below, one of the pilots climbs into a Spitfire.

Kindly Approval For London's Girl Fire-Fighters

A visiting King George and the A.E.S. girls at fire headquarters in London as he acknowledges the fine work being done by the women in supplementing the first-aiding forces of the metropolis. London's fire-fighters are the most important body of men in London today, constantly on the alert against fire caused by German incendiary bombs.

Teachers Can Cook

Teachers of the Millbank School, London, England, preparing food at an army field kitchen on the school grounds. They are part of a group of nearly 100 London teachers who have made a rapid change-over from teaching to cooking and are now providing food for the homeless in the London County communal kitchens.

More London Children Evacuated To The Country

These pictures were taken as another large party of mothers and children were evacuated to the country from London. A policeman is shown, left, carrying a youngster to a waiting bus, while a woman follows closely with another small evacuee. Note the identification tag around her neck.

He's Ready For U-Boats

A British fisherman is seen setting the line on a 12-pound shell before setting out to sea. Any German submarine that gets in the way of this property should find itself in difficulties.

Spectacular Rescue In London

This is one of the daily flocks of heroism that keep London's heart beating. Air Raid Precautions rescue squad brings young Betty Warburton back from what seemed sure death when she was caught in wreckage of London school which was hit by a bomb. Her suffering from exposure and exhaustion, but—bravely, oh, bravely!

Their Majesties Visit Union Jack Club

King George and Queen Elizabeth are pictured chatting with a soldier in a barber's chair, as they visited the Union Jack Club in London recently. The King and Queen are constantly seen about the areas which have been demolished by Hitler's Luftwaffe, spreading good cheer and advice, and making certain that the people are not discouraged.

Canadian Officers—They'll Soon Be Afloat

Officers of the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve at one of the R.C. naval training stations on the west coast are shown along in their uniforms. With their sailing, officers and ratings are playing a great part in this war—as they did in the last.
